

OTHER SERVICES

Staging and Redesign Services

In order to show the best side of your home, we help de-clutter the space and showoff the features of your home. Our trained staff have experience in redesign and staging to show your home in its best light.

Preparing your home for sale

We can prepare your home for sale, by organizing cleaners, painters, landscapers and other contractors needed to improve or update your home prior to the sale.

Home Clear-out

There are many instances where a home needs to be cleared out. Our professional team will develop a plan and take care of removing all household items. Whether you are a home owner, family member, real estate agent or executor, we will get the home ready for its nextphase.

Personalizing your new home

We can help personalize your home through minor renovations such as organizing the purchase and installation of a home theatre, bath bars and hand grabs, custom blinds and drapes and other items.

MOVING AND DOWNSIZING

nextphase takes away the stress of moving and downsizing by providing, personal, caring service for every phase of the move. We provide you with peace of mind by knowing that every detail of the move is planned, coordinated and organized. What sets us apart from traditional movers is that we manage the entire transition of your move down to the finest detail with a team of caring and compassionate professionals.

We provide tailored solutions to clients that want to move and need help in downsizing, packing and unpacking. We are there to provide emotional and professional support as we guide you through the process of deciding what items to take with you and what items to gift, donate or recycle. We select the best value movers and supervise them during the move. At your new home, we unpack all boxes, set-up your home, and provide a reveal of your nextphase home on move day.

TESTIMONIALS

"You and your staff did a wonderful job for us again! Your ability to understand the special needs of seniors and to respond to our need to move on short notice was greatly appreciated."

Terry S – Abbotsford, BC

"You and your team were fantastic!! Absolutely amazing and we could not have done it without you! I know you probably hear that often but I really do mean it!"

Nancy M – West Vancouver, BC

"I remember first walking into Amica and seeing the apartment set-up and it brought a tear to my eye. My Dad loved what you had done. As my Dad said... "that Scott is a good man..." and he only said what he meant. I think you are too. Thank you for everything."
